

Searching for a better way to commute? Let Metro lead the way.

Here's a great opportunity for you to try vanpooling or vansharing. You can ride FREE in any King County Metro Commuter Van - up to three times per van group.

Commuter Vans are fun and can save you money. A 30-mile round trip with seven riders costs only about $77 a month. A VanShare connector van fare is about $26 a month. And, because commuter vans can use freeway diamond lanes, they save you time too. Plus, Metro vans feature air conditioning and individual reading lights-commuting has never been so relaxing! Now is a great time to give a vanpool or vanshare a try.

Use the cut-off ticket below to take part in this special promotion. Just contact the person listed at the top of your ticket to arrange your ride!
